

Care Ministry News

SIOBHAN DOOLEY

The Mercy Sisters from the ADDO community facilitated a wonderful Spiritual Retreat for 27 Care Ministry Volunteer Care Givers in September. The Retreat was held at the Catholic Centre, Newton Park, and provided the volunteers with an opportunity to take time out for self nurture and care as they reflected on the message of the Good Samaritan. Thank you to the Mercy Sisters for this experience.

Many of our volunteer care givers provided practical assistance at the public hospitals of Port Elizabeth, particularly Dora Nginza and Livingston hospitals, throughout the period of strikes. Volunteers helped with a variety of tasks including the washing and care of patients as well as duties such as cleaning of the wards. This was a very difficult time within the hospitals and we very much appreciate the commitment shown by the volunteers to offer their services when it was required.

The Care Ministry is excited to welcome the arrival of Dr Pat Cane, Director and Founder of Capacitar International, to Port Elizabeth in October. Dr Cane will be facilitating a number of workshops during her time with us. These workshops provide participants with skills and exercises focussing on "Living in Wellness". Should anyone require any further information regarding similar workshops then please contact Moira Boshoff at the Care Ministry Office.

Anybody wishing to access information or counselling support can contact the Care Ministry office at 041 365 1135.

News from Sacred Heart Catholic Church, King William's Town

TERRY KINGSTON

Our annual International Evening fundraiser (Italy, USA, Philippines, SA, , India, China, Ghana, Mexico , Int. tavern) was once again a huge success.

There were a few additional stalls compared to last year. Everyone seemed to have had a great time. The "live sheep" raffle was drawn on the same night and the winner was Elaine and Brian Delpoit's grandson.

Our Day of Adoration of the Blessed Eucharist followed by Benediction on the 12 September was supported by various sodalites and sister parishes. Thanks to all who organised the environment and teas.

Thanks to Fr John Pullokararan we were privileged to spend time with the veneration of the Relics of St Therese of Lisieux. Communities in and around King plus members of other denominations came for the veneration which concluded with the celebration of Mass.

Parishioners also attended a viewing of a DVD on the life of St Therese , thanks to PPC chairman Shain Jurie for helping out. Jacques Pienaar and Sr Bernardis also presented a two part DVD viewing of "The Great Silence" which aptly lived up to its name. Although the way of life depicted in the DVD is not everyone's cup of tea, we must nevertheless acknowledge that we need to nurture the contemplative aspect of our lives, bearing in mind those great words " a life without contemplation is a life not worth living".

Daisy at a Rosary making workshop with confirmation candidates , sponsors and parents

We congratulate Mike Tassell on being elevated to Knighthood. The Knights completed a project at Woodlands to provide hot water and tank water via an electric pump to the priest's house. This involved plumbing, electrical, carpentry and hard labour skills. Four Knights with their wives attended a Regional Conference held in Port Elizabeth.

Congratulations also to Bjorn Basson on his achievements in the Currie cup rugby tournament. Father Trevor just beams with pride when you talk to him about all his sons' sporting achievements. Having equalled the record for the most tries in a Currie Cup season we are holding thumbs that he will break this record in the last game of the season against the Bulls.

We also congratulate Maizie Flanagan on her 80th birthday, may there be many more.

About 30 eager viva altar servers spent the September long weekend at St Joseph's in PE. They had fundraised over many weeks for this outing. By the sounds of things they had a whale of a time in the windy city.

Thanks to Hazel & Shain Jurie , Dee Changfoot and Nicci Taai for giving up their weekend to accompany the group. Bishop Michael Coleman celebrated mass with them and joined them in a braai. Thanks also to Fr John Pullokararan and Felicity Collocott for doing a lot of the behind the scenes work.

We wish Fr John Pullokararan a restful working holiday in India. Fr John with the expert help of Tom Thayil will be bringing out another glossy book printed in India relating to the church societies and activities. We look forward to viewing it shortly.

St Joseph the Worker, Chatty

OPEN MIC FUNDRAISER IN AID OF THE YOUTH CENTRE

The youth of St Joseph the worker are proud to say that they hosted a successful fundraiser for the Youth Centre. It was quite a challenge, but the St Joseph the worker youth are a very strong and close knit youth group and "we could not have done it without our youth parents, Kenneth and Lynette Williams", they said.

The Open Mic was held on the 25th of July 2010, at Chatty Community Centre, and was attended by many friends, families and parishioners of St Joseph the worker, as well as surrounding parishes.

The event was also graced by the presence of The Herald Spec-Savers Miss Port Elizabeth, Bianca Harper, who was one of the judges, and is also a youth mentor at St James parish. The other judges were Manny "More" Platjies, Yolande Niekerk and Aubrey October. The fundraiser was a huge success and the youth would like to thank everyone who supported them, including the sponsors, and the "MC", Clayton Noah.

There was a lot of talent among the many entries, and it was difficult to select the top 5 entrants, and the St Joseph's youth would like to congratulate the top 5 winners, and they were: Unestimated (Arantxa, Robin and Chalayne) in first place, Michael Jackson(Joshua Eland) in second place, Extreme (Cerwin & Vovo) in third place, Royden Kock in fourth place and Lyndsey Vermaak, in fifth place.

FUNERALS: NOT OCCASIONS FOR ROMANTIC BALLADS OR POP MUSIC

Football club songs and pop or rock music have been banned from funerals in Catholic churches in Australia under new guidelines distributed to priests and funeral directors.

A funeral should not be a "celebration" of the deceased's life, Archbishop of Melbourne Denis Hart said in the rules, but a final sacred farewell. Celebrations of that life should be held at social occasions before or after the funeral.

"Secular items such as romantic ballads, pop or rock music, political songs, football club songs are never to be sung or played."

But funeral directors are expecting disagreement from customers.

Centennial Park, leading provider of cemetery, crematorium and memorial services in Australia, has compiled a list of the 10 most popular songs at Australian funerals. The top song was Frank Sinatra's My way, followed by Wonderful World by Louis Armstrong, Time to say goodbye by Andrea Bocelli and Sarah Brightman, and Unforgettable by Nat King Cole, and I will raise him up by Josh Groban.

Among the more unusual songs listed were Queen's Another one Bites the Dust, AC/DC's Highway to Hell, Always Look on the Bright Side of Life by Monty Python, and Ding Dong the Witch is Dead from the Wizard of Oz.

Our Synod

The members of the Johannesburg Archdiocesan Synod are to be congratulated on how frequently the "Word of God" is mentioned in their final document under the headings of "Spirituality and Formation". Our Synod clearly draws a link between:

THE WORD OF GOD - SPIRITUALITY - LECTIO DIVINA

"Bible sharing, Lectio Divina, Family Scripture, Enthroning the Bible in homes, Youth sharing the Word" appear again and again. All these will bring about, in the words of the Synod, "Intimacy with Jesus and the knowledge of the Father."

Our Spirituality

"The Word of God is the first source of all Christian spirituality. It gives rise to a personal relationship with the living God and with his saving and sanctifying will." John Paul II

If we believe this then we are being called to fundamentally change the direction of our own spirituality. Our spirituality will become Word of God centred. Using the Bible will be integral to our daily spiritual living. The Bible will become our first Book of Prayer.

Lectio Divina

The Synod Documents frequently make mention of Lectio Divina. This is not just another "Bible Sharing Method". It is important that we are clear in our understanding of this most profound way of praying. It is first and foremost a method of personal prayer (entering into a conversation with our God).

Lectio Divina, means, Holy Reading.

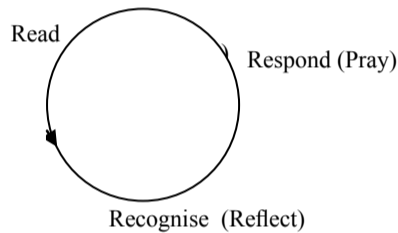

It is, in reality, prayer that has its source and inspiration in Scripture – the Word of God.

"Prayer should accompany the reading of Sacred Scripture, so that God and man may talk together for, 'we speak to Him when we pray; we hear Him when we read the divine sayings. (lectio divina)'" DV 25

Early on in the life of the People of God – lectio divina was the most common method of prayer. Sadly this practice gradually fell into disuse.

Prayer using Lectio Divina

I introduce you to the concept of the prayer circle of Lectio Divina.

READ

We begin by reading our text for the first of many times.

⁴⁴The Kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sell all that he has and buys that field. ⁴⁵Again. The Kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls. ⁴⁶When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it. (Mt 13: 44-46)

RECOGNISE – (reflect, meditate)

There are many ways in which we can enter into the text. We will start by looking for the repetitions.

⁴⁴The Kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sell all that he has and buys that field. ⁴⁵Again. The Kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls. ⁴⁶When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it. (Mt 13: 44-46)

RESPOND – (Pray)

What word or phrase resonates with you?

Repeat this phrase/word and again and again, savouring it and letting it enter into your being.

How does it touch you?

Respond using your word/phrase in your prayer.

We have now completed the first circle and once more return to our text.

READ

RECOGNISE - the emotions here.

⁴⁴The Kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sell all that he has and buys that field. ⁴⁵Again. The Kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls. ⁴⁶When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it. (Mt 13: 44-46)

The obvious emotion is "out of joy". Perhaps you can find other emotions; surprise, enthusiasm ..

Can you think of a text in scripture that reflects this emotion of JOY?

"My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord;

My spirit rejoices in God my saviour." Lk 1: 46-47

RESPOND

Respond to Jesus in prayer, filled with joy and gratitude for the wonderful characteristics you have and all the marvelous things in your life.

As our prayer ends we return to the text once more, READING it; commencing the circle of prayer once more.

Conclusion

We need the Scriptures to become an integral part of our spirituality. This is a life-long journey with the Word. Each day we allow the Word to speak to us as we take time to savour, chew on and digest the Word of Life.

"How can all this happen?"

"Use the available resources," says the Synod Document.

St. Martin De Porres Parish, Gelvandale

6 October 2010

St. Martin De Porres, Gelvandale is truly blessed to have two of our couples in the parish celebrate their Golden Wedding Anniversaries.

Right:

Gerald & Sheila Hahn were married on the 27th August 1960. On Saturday 28th August the couple received a special blessing from Fr. Davis at the Mass to celebrate 50 years of marriage.

Left: Lionel & Jeanette Barry were married on the 12th September 1960. On Sunday 12 September the couple received a special blessing from Fr. Davis at the Mass to celebrate their 50 years of Marriage.

BIBLE SUNDAY – 29 AUGUST 2010

Bible Sunday was celebrated on the weekend of 28 /29 August 2010. The Liturgy Committee used the Diocesan programme as a guide. The Bible was enthroned at all the Masses and Parishioners were asked to bring their own bibles to Mass. Fr. Davis asked the parishioners to pray a Prayer of Commitment and then blessed all the Bibles. The Catechists appealed to parishioners for donations of Bibles for children who did not own Bibles. These were handed out to the children on Catechetical Sunday.

PARISH FUNDRAISER – BINGO DRIVE – SATURDAY 11 SEPTEMBER 2010

Our Parish once again had a Bingo Drive on Saturday 11 September 2010. The prizes for the Bingo Drive and the goods for the tuckshop was generously donated by the Wards in the parish. The success of our fundraising efforts is the community working together in peace and harmony. Our Ward leaders in the parish are very committed to their task and work with great enthusiasm. Fr. Davis our parish priest is very encouraging and is always ready to assist even to the point of assisting with the preparation of the hall for the event. Those who won prizes went home with much needed grocery items.

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY – 12 SEPTEMBER 2010

The Catechists chose themes representing all the Sacraments and based their displays on these themes. The themes were well prepared and very informative. Parents and children who visited the displays were given handouts in the form of prayer cards and were invited to join in a cup of tea and refreshments. Parents were also encouraged to meet with the Catechists and thank them for all the hard work they put into passing on the faith to the children of our parish. The little ones were each handed a party pack which brought lots of smiles to the faces.

Relic of St. Therese of Lisieux – St. Martin De Porres – Tuesday 21 September 2010

The Relic of Therese of Lisieux arrived at St. Martin De Porres, Gelvandale on Tuesday 21 September. A whole days' programme had been planned. Three Masses were celebrated and Liturgical services were held. Parishioners and Visitors from all areas including Plettenberg Bay were afforded a chance to venerate the relics. Everyone who attended the services and Masses said that they had enjoyed an unforgettable experience. On Wednesday 22 September St. Martin's Parish bid farewell to the Relic with a well attended Mass celebrated by our Parish Priest, Fr. Davis Mekkattukulam.

Confirmation at Holy Name, Kwazakhele

NOMZAMO "ZAZA" JACK

The Holy Name Catholic Church prides itself on receiving new members through confirmation. The faithful committed themselves to be serving members of the church. It was a spiritual and joyful celebration on receiving the Gift of the Holy Spirit.

Growth in Faith is a lifelong process and it is essential that opportunities which foster formation and growth be continually offered to all persons in our Faith. It is through this opportunity that we are the recipients of the Gifts of the Holy Spirit through confirmation. We promise that we shall live a life of faith and give assistance to all those who are in need. We have committed ourselves to be full active participants in the church.

Special thanks to Fr Madikane for his continuous encouragement and preparing us on the journey of Faith.

Not forgetting Mr Mguda who was the eye opener of our faith as well as our Catechist who was always available at times of need.

News from Holy Name, Kwazakhele

NOMZAMO "ZAZA" JACK

A day it was, what a day indeed when we bid farewell to Fr Lubaba "Baba" Mguda and a warm welcome to Father Luvuyo "Talava" Madikane at the Holy Name Catholic Church in Kwazakhele.

A day never to be forgotten as Mrs Gaxamba our Parish Chairperson welcomed all who were present.

A touching send off message was conveyed by Mr Ngqumetyana. He highlighted that Fr Mguda did not just lead us by giving us the word of God and offered the Eucharist, but also he was encouraging us especially when we were weak. He nurtured us, and he also embraced us when we were doing good.

A Welcome message was given by Mrs Ngcwangu. She gracefully asked Fr Madikane to go outside and as he was coming in we sang a song of welcome. She also noted that Fr Madikane should know that he comes to people who are thirsty for the word of God and that the Parish is looking forward to having him and to work with him.

We can never forget the words of wisdom that were conveyed by Inqala Umakhwekwetha Fr Ted Moleneaux. He gave them encouragement.

Our guest speaker, Fr Mluleki Mnyaka was also a great speaker. He reminded them that as the year of the Priest was coming to an end, to them it must be the beginning and continue with their vocation with honour, humility and commitment. A reply was given by Fr Mguda for both of them. He said that the love, respect and care that we gave him humbled him. He said that he hoped we shall do the same to Fr Luvuyo.

Formation of Youth Group – Holy Name of Jesus, Kwazakhele

June 16 marked the launch of the Holy Name Of Jesus Youth group.

The youth members along with the youth members from Pawulos Oyingwele and members of the host Parish started the day with Mass celebrated by Fr. Luvuyo Madikane. Fr. Madikane had a lot of inspiring words to say to the youth.

During the Mass each youth member lit a candle, said their pledge and signed their names in a book they'll keep forever. After the Mass the fun began where everyone gathered in the convent to be entertained by the groups, poet, Naledi Mothloareng. Mr S. Madywabe also gave words of wisdom to the group. After all the fun and excitement, lunch was served by the youth's mentors, Mrs Luse and Mrs Jack.

The launch was a major success. Seeing everybody enjoying themselves was phenomenal. The youth spent time with their parish Priest and got to know each other and established what they were capable of doing as a group! "Young people united in Christ" is our motto.

Naledi Mothloareng (Treasurer); Amanda Anthony; Lwando Mayoli; Thuso Neer (Dep. Chairperson); Siyamthanda Komani; Sinazo Luse (Chairperson) AND Nosikhumbuzo Yawa

JUST 4 KIDS

Hi Boys & Girls,

Another school holiday has just ended and the end of the year is just around the corner. To those of you who are about to start school for the first time next year, just be good and listen to all that your teacher has to say and for those who are coming to the end of yet another Grade, may God help you to all do well in your end-of-the year exams.

But it's story time again and I know a lot of you are following the story of Joseph and how do I know that? - because you've told me so. So here goes.....

Joseph's brothers had come to Egypt from Canaan to buy food but they didn't recognize Joseph. Joseph so badly wanted to see his brother Benjamin who, like him, was Rachel's son, so he cleverly accused them of being spies. "You must prove you aren't spies" he said "so go back and bring your youngest brother to me and I will keep Simeon in Egypt". Reuben then told the others "This has happened because of what you did to Joseph" They didn't know that Joseph had heard them but by this, Joseph knew his brothers were sorry for what they had done.

Reuben and his brothers bought bags of food to take home and Joseph wanted them to have the food for free so their money was put back in their food bags and they went home leaving Simeon in Egypt. On the way home they found the money. "Look what God has done to us!" they cried but they couldn't go back to Egypt. At home they told Jacob what had happened. "First Joseph died and now Simeon is gone" he cried "and now you want to take Benjamin from me. You've made my hair grey. If I lose Benjamin, I'll die"

With Jacob's large family the food was soon gone and the brothers needed to get some more. "We can't go unless Benjamin comes along" they said. "If he must go, then he must" replied Jacob, "but take special gifts and twice as much money. It was a mistake that the money was in your bags. May God Almighty have mercy on you in Egypt". So Jacob's sons took Benjamin and returned to Egypt. Soon they were bowing down to Joseph again.

Till next time, take care and God bless you all.
